Governor Hugh L. White has named Theodore G. Egloff to the second man in Mississippi to win nomination to the office of sheriff for two terms. Paul B. Johnson, Jr., by 10,000 votes.

Official count gave White 188,375.

White served as chief executive from 1940 after defeating his present opponent in a second primary election.

White's victory gave him the Democratic nomination, which is equivalent to this one party state.

White, 54, is also the second bid for the office since 1940 until his death in 1944, suffered his third stroke.

Gov. Fielding L. Wright when Wright swept to a first victory over four foes, and later finished fourth in the 1940 election.

White's victory in the race was never topped in the race. He led more than 12,000 votes during the counting but was whittled down to slightly less than 10,000 votes.

White then climbed back to lead 10,000 votes where he was slightly dipping and the last returns were reported.

White's majority of his count was Johnson's main support in the rural areas where the White family has always resided a strong.

White were in Laurel and Hattiesburg, Mississippi cities that were White's home town.

White (Jack) gave White White, which was a surprise. He had over 10,000 votes.

SAINT JOSEPH'S RECEIVES ANNEX -NEW PAINTING

St. Joseph Academy is undergoing renovations prior to the opening of school. The main building is being sandblasted, to remove the old paint, and coats of a waterproofing chemical and new paint are being applied to the building. The structure, after being sandblasted, was very attractive with the bricks unpainted, but Sister Dorothy, principal, says that the paint and waterproofing are necessary, because the building is an old one, and the bricks and mortar are not in good condition.

Also, two additional class-rooms have been annexed to the cottage, located to the rear of the school grounds, behind the tennis court. These class-rooms will house the fifth and sixth grades.

St. Joseph's Academy will have a changed faculty this year. All the new teachers have not yet arrived, reports Sister Dorothy, but will be at the school very soon. Sister Louise Raphael, who taught at St. Joseph for many years, and was principal last year, is now teaching at St. Joseph Academy in New Orleans.

Top man in the twelve-man elimination series was Thompson, who had three first and a second for a 938 average, followed by Louis Koerner, 812; J. E. Erwin, 750; Jack Gordon, 750; Leo Seal, Jr., 688; Arthur Wynne, 688; C. C. McDonald, Jr., 563; Dave McDonald, 500; Elliott Coward, 438; Glen Coward, 438; John Koerner, 375; and Larry Laroux, 313.

It was explained that the team is entirely new as none of the 1950 team representatives were repeaters.

STATE AIRPORT MANAGERS MEET IS SET FOR BAY

This was announced this week by Mr. Bruce H. Campbell, District Airport Engineer for the Civil Aeronautics Administration. Mr. Campbell is very enthusiastic about the idea. In a recent letter to Mayor Warren Carver, Mr. Campbell stated:

"From our preliminary survey, all indications point to a very enthusiastic reception of the idea of having an airport managers meeting at Bay St. Louis, and we have received very favorable comments from both airport managers and city and county officials. It will be appreciated if you will advise us as soon as the strip is available for aircraft use."

It was pointed out that the 'city and county officials' referred to by Mr. Campbell were those officials whose home communities have airports. Each airport manager will be urged to bring at least one official from his community to the meeting planned at the Bay.

WESTERN UNION WILL BE ALLOWED RAISE

Washington—Telegraph rates are being "sopped up" and that "10 percent" which is often ended with "love" is going out. In most cases, the exact amount of the rate increase remains to be worked out. But the minimum charge will be for 15 words instead of the present 10.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has disapproved as too high proposed rate schedules filed by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and designed to yield $11,000,000 net revenue.

However, the FCC agreed the company needs up to $9,800,000 more revenue as a result of a July 1 wage increase.

As a result of the FCC action, the company must start all over and draft new schedules. If they meet with FCC approval they will be allowed to go into effect promptly.

While not specifying exact rates in most cases, the FCC did authorize Western Union to:

1. Make 15 words instead of ten the minimum charge for straight telegrams.

2. Increase the minimum money order premium for money orders from 15 to 25 cents. This charge is in addition to telegram charges.

3. Make 50 words instead of 25 the minimum charge for night letters, with no change in the present 50-word allowance for day letters.

4. Put into effect a new formula increasing charges for press dispatches. Under it, the day press rate will be one-half the telegram rates, and night press one-fourth the telegram rates. Press rates now are one-third and one-sixth, respectively.

SHRIMP-CRAB BOIL BY B-W YACHT CLUB SUNDAY, SEPT. 2

MRS. GRACE N. WALL

SHRIMP-CRAB BOIL BY B-W YACHT CLUB SUNDAY, SEPT. 2

The Women's Auxiliary of the Bay-Weiland Yacht Club will sponsor a crab and shrimp boil on the evening of September 2. This will be a wonderful opportunity for all of the Labor Day week and visitors to enjoy the hospitality of the club, and at the same time to have a grand Sunday night supper; and a chance for all the home-folks to get away from the cookstove and take it easy on the cool wide verandas of the Yacht Club.

The crab and shrimp boil is not limited to club members, but is open to anyone who wishes to come. Although it is not absolutely necessary to make reservations, Mrs. Allgayer, suggests that anyone interested call 9138 and let Mrs. Trastour, club manager, know how many are expected in your party. Supper will be served cafeteria style.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary at the Yacht Club on Thursday, Sept. 6 at 10:30 a.m.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

Two advertisements appeared in last week's issue of our paper which we would like to explain to our readers. The ads were entitled "Help - Find $3,600," and "Come on in for your part of the Eagle's $3,600."

These ads were "teasers" in preparation for an advertising contest contemplated by this paper. The scheme involved approximately $3,600 in cash and other prizes, which would have been donated to a great extent by the advertisers, and would have run for twelve weeks.

We at first thought the idea was a clever one, but after very careful consideration and with the welfare of our advertisers in mind we decided that the cost to them would have been prohibitive considering the returns they would receive.

It has always been the policy of this paper to "play fair" and "shoot square" with all concerned, and since we feel that our advertisers are what keeps us going, and since they have been most generous and helpful in the past two years in helping us to attain our present position, our first thought was for them and we decided to drop this scheme and continue to merit the good will of our advertisers and readers as well.

We Should All Be Proud Of

OUR OWN COMPANY "B"—ORC

This community has every reason to be proud of the accomplishments of Company "B" of the 302nd Amphibian Tractor Battalion which only last week completed two weeks of active duty training at Fort Benning, Georgia. With two of its men capturing battalion honors on the firing range and with the entire company taking first place in general inspections during their training period, it speaks well for the men who gave up two weeks of their time towards training for the defense of our country should the occasion ever arise. Some of the men of Company "B" have had very little military training and some have been discharged from the Regular Army long enough for them to have found it very hard to fall into the routine of military life. Their good showing and the honors they won brings good publicity to our community. It's the kind of publicity we need.

"SANTA FE" AT HIGHWAY DRIVE-IN THEATRE NEXT SUNDAY & MONDAY

Technicolor Western Thriller
Stars Randolph Scott

The building of the Santa Fe across the plains of Mexico into the West is the background of this active, well-paced Western-type film, with Technicolor to enhance the pictorial values and Randolph Scott to assist in the marquee presentation.

As produced by Harry Joe Brown and directed by Irving Pichel, the film has strong production values of its kind, performances which are thoroughly satisfactory and reasonable credibility. Based on a novel by James Marshall and a story by Louis Stevens, the scene play by Kenneth Gamet sets the scene immediately following the Civil War and has as a basis the hatred which still lingers at the time between erstwhile battlefield foes of the North and the South.

The Canfield brothers, of whom Scott is the eldest, leave their destroyed Virginia home and after a shooting in a saloon, flee on a train bearing workers on the then-building Santa Fe. Scott, seeking to forget the past, takes a job, while his three brothers take the path of outlawry. From that point it is a situation of chief, fighting for the railroad in its movement west against varied obstacles, at the same time seeking to keep his brothers out of trouble. Meanwhile, he falls in love with the young war-widow, Janis Carter, who is the line's paymaster.

Inevitably the brothers fall before the arm of the law and the road, the railroad goes through, and Scott and Miss Carter seek new railroads to build together.

ED P. ORTTE EXPRESSES GRATITUDE

Sincerely I wish to express my deep appreciation to the true friends who voted for me in the 2nd Primary. Truly you good folks will never know just how grateful I feel towards you. Please always remember me as your friend and as one who wishes each and every one of you the very best of health and prosperity.

I ask you to please co-operate with my successor and help him make Beat 5 one of the best districts in the State of Mississippi.

To those who did not vote for me, I assure you I hold no ill feelings. I only hope my successor proves his worthiness for the support you gave him. I am certain he will even exceed the confidence you have placed in him.

Sincerely your true friend,

EMPLOYMENT GAIN NOTED BY OFFICE

One person out of every four who live in the area served by the Biloxi office of the Mississippi State Employment Service is gainfully employed, according to announcement by Nathan Gordon, manager.

In the area which the Biloxi office serves, which includes the eastern one third of Harrison County and the town of Ocean Springs, 15,028 people of the estimated 60,000 population are now working, Mr. Gordon said.

The population estimate, said Gordon, includes military personnel families living within the above area. The labor force, he continued, has shown an increase of 5101 persons over this period, last year, which is an increase of 19.6 percent.

The field of professional, scientific and controlling instrument has shown a significant change, Gordon declared. He said that the increase in this little known Biloxi area was from two workers last year to 21 workers this year. Gordon stated that the largest increase in the labor force is under miscellaneous non-manufacturing which is mostly in the construction field. The increase over last year's figures is 3415. Last year 3935 were employed in this category as compared to this year's 7350. The increase in manufacturing workers is 774 more than last year. Last year 3107 were employed.

All types of government workers have increased by 739—an increase of 29 percent over last year, according to Gordon's calculations.

TRAFFIC DEATH TOLL OF 400 SEEN FOR LABOR DAY

Detroit—Over the coming Labor Day week-end some 400 persons will die in traffic accidents.

They will die for a variety of reasons.

Some will die because of carelessness; some in an effort to travel too many miles in too few hours, resulting in fatigue. Some will die because of a disinclination to yield the right of way to the other driver.

Mostly they will die because millions of motorists underestimate the responsibility of piloting a couple of tons of fast-moving metal over heavily congested highways.

It has been said that the automobile is one of the greatest boons of the modern era. It is also one of the greatest man-killers of all time. The 400 marked to die on the nation's highways during the coming holiday week-end will join a tragic host numbering nearly 1,000,000 who have died in motorist collisions during the last 50 years.

That, some agencies say, is a greater loss of life than the United States has suffered in all the wars it ever fought.

$200 MILLION TO BE SETTLED ON HEARST WIFE AND FIVE SONS

Los Angeles—The will of Publisher William Randolph Hearst has been admitted to probate.

Approved by Superior Judge Newcomb Condon, the document disposes of an estate estimated to be worth more than $200,000,000. It establishes three trusts, one for the widow, Mrs. Millicent B. Hearst, of New York, one for the publisher's five sons and a fifth for the publisher's daughter, Mrs. Marion Millicent Hearst.

The court awarded a family allowance of $150,000 to Mrs. Hearst, pending the disposition of the estate.

Mrs. Hearst was not present but was represented by William Edgar, San Francisco lawyer.

Attorneys for the five sons are Martin Davis, a New York lawyer, and Charles and Michael Millicent Hearst, a New York lawyer, and a third son, William Randolph Hearst, a New York lawyer.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR FARM POLICY REVIEW MEETINGS IN COUNTY

The Hancock County Agricultural Mobilization Committee are making plans for Farm Policy Review meetings to be held in this county to determine what farmers in each community think about services reaching them from the United States Department of Agriculture, according to Fitzhugh Lee, Chairman of the committee.

This is part of a nation-wide study to help the USDA learn how it can improve its services to the nation's family farms.

After the community meetings, farm representatives from each community will meet to prepare a written county report which will be sent to Washington, D.C. The county report will give recommended changes and improvements for programs of each USDA agency.

It is hoped that all farms and farm families will take part in this Review, Mr. Lee said.

Farms which provide the main source of income for a family include probably 98 percent of the farm units in the United States. These do much to demonstrate the ways of American Democracy to the rest of the world, Mr. Lee added. Agencies to be studied are Cooperative Extension Service, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Rural Electrification Administration, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, Commodity Exchange Authority, Agricultural Research Administration, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, and Office of Information.

The review will give farmers a chance to become better acquainted with the many government services to them.

Community leaders for the Farm Policy Review will be selected Thursday, August 30 and dates and places of the various community meetings will be set.

WORK BEGUN ON CUDAHY PACKING PLANT

Ground was broken this month on the site of the new $150,000 Cudahy Packing Company's poultry processing plant at Forest. The plant, when completed before the end of the year, will be capable of processing approximately 80,000 chickens per week. Agriculture

Commissioner St. Corley, who the first spadeful of dirt was revealed that 17,005,000 broilers were produced in 1950, compared with only 10,000 in 1949. He stated that the plant moved from 17th place in the nation and estimated that it will produce 20,000,000 broilers a year.

Vicksburg, Miss., is writing up to be a "good" city in Mississippi. A good citizen obeys the law, is honest, industrious and loves his fellow man. The foundation for these virtues should be laid in the life of the child by the time he enters school. Because this is not done in one of the main reasons why there are so many children and young people getting into trouble.

One of the greatest law violators ever hanged for crime in Mississippi, on the night before he was hanged, wrote his mother a farewell letter in which he stated that if she had been more diligent in his training when he was a little boy, he probably would not have ended his days on the gallows.

"WHEN I GROW UP" AT STAR THEATRE NEXT THURS. & FRI., 6-7

"When I Grow Up" will be featured at the Star Theatre next Thursday and Friday, September 6-7, and stars Bobby Driscoll, Martha Scott, Robert Preston and Charley Grapewin, in a heart-warming story of family life as seen through the eyes of a growing American boy, played by Bobby. The picture takes one along the nostalgic path of the old swimming hole, the fights with the kid sister and the artful ways of dodging the affectionate discipline of parents—in short, all the joys and sorrows of growing up. Written and directed by Michael Kanin, who won an Academy Award for his "Woman of the Year," the Eagle Lion release is a Horizon Production produced by S. P. Eagle.

The film is notable for the fact that Bobby Driscoll portrays two roles. He is a boy of today in scenes with Charley Grapewin as his grandfather, Elizabeth Frazer and Henry Morgan as his parents. Then, in a flashback sequence, Bobby, the star of "Treasure Island," portrays his grandfather as a youth.

The story effectively shows that problems of parents and children can be overcome through warmth and understanding, and that this was as basic ally true in past generations as it is today. Bobby gives a fine performance both in the modern sequence and as a boy of seventy years ago. Miss Scott and Robert Preston, as the parents of yesterday, handle their roles deftly and with the ease of their great experience.

CONGRESSIONAL SIDELIGHTS
—By—
CONGRESSMAN WM. M. COLMER

HOUSE RECESS

The House, which operates under strict rules limiting debate, always forges ahead of the Senate in disposing of the legislative program. In the senior body there is ordinarily no limit on the time consumed nor the subject matter touched upon by a member in the course of debate; and as a result the Senate is much the more talkative and ponderously moving of the two Houses. This session has been no exception to that rule, and the House has found itself far enough ahead to take a nine-day recess while waiting for the Senate to catch up.

SCORE CARD

This Congress has been generally more deliberate than usual. The Senate, besides indulging its usual tendency at length, has been occupied with various time-consuming investigations, such as that of the Kefauver Committee and the MacArthur controversy. The House, too, has been behind its usual schedule. This is particularly true of appropriation bills. After trying a combined bill covering all appropriations last year, the Congress returned to the old method of a number of separate bills. This shifting from one method to another probably had something to do with the slowness of the Appropriations Committee in reporting out bills this year. Another factor that may have slowed down the machinery in the House is that this year each appropriation bill has been gone over with a fine tooth comb in an effort to find non-essential items that might be cut. This has led to more than the usual number of amendments being offered on the floor and to a consequent consumption of more time in considering each bill. Whatever the reasons, instead of all funds needed to carry on the work of the government having been provided by the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, or that date this year not a single 1952 appropriation had cleared both Houses and been signed by the President. Even now, seven weeks or so after the beginning of the Government's new financial year, only two such bills have become law, though three others have been cleared for the President's signature. Four others have passed the House but have not been acted upon in the Senate.

That body also must still consider the House-passed new tax bill and the foreign aid bill, both of which will no doubt be debated at great length. However, the Senate leaders have agreed to aim at winding up the "must" bills by Sept. 15 and have set Oct. 1 as a target date for final adjournment.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On the day of the House's adjournment until Sept. 15 President Truman sent a special message to Congress requesting four major changes in the recently passed Defense Production Act (the control bill). He asked Congress to kill the provisions that:

1. Permit sellers to apply for price ceilings on that business prior to July 26 of this year.
2. Allow manufacturers and wholesalers their customary percentage markup.
3. Prohibit interstate transportation of gas.
4. Restrict imports of fats and oils (which includes South Mississippi's gum oil) and dairy products.

His recommendations were promptly treated with changes that they were politically inspired and were an attempt to shift some of the Administration's blame to Congress for any further delay in passing the control bill. In passing the measure, the House had demonstrated great confidence in this change. The message was returned to the Senate by the President and Congressmen were given the opportunity to discuss the changes. Mr. C. Augustus was appointed chairman of the subcommittee on the bill. The subcommittee was to report to the Senate by Sept. 15. The bill was passed by the House on Sept. 12, 1951.

ATOMIC-POWERED SUB CONTRACTED BY NAVY

Washington—The Navy has let a contract for the first atomic-powered submarine—a craft described by a congressional authority as having "immense military implications."

Announcing the award of a contract to the Electric Boat Company of Groton, Conn., the Navy gave no details. Nor would officials elaborate on the 26-word announcement.

But semi-official sources have said an atomic-powered submarine would have a vast underwater speed, and speculation as to its possible speed has ranged as high as 50 to 60 miles an hour—more than twice that of conventional undersea craft.

The Navy's announcement, first open step into an atomic powered future, came somewhat earlier than the time which had previously been guardedly expressed.

In March the Navy hoped to start its first nuclear-powered submarine by the end of this year. This latest announcement, however, indicated an approaching solution of major problems in the way of ship propulsion by controlled splitting of atoms—done in devices the scientists call reactors.

The craft to be constructed at Groton, it is believed, will be a 2,500-ton vessel, somewhat larger than the Navy's present fleet submarines.

Neither the Navy nor the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) is likely to give any hints about its performance—assuming it is successful—until it has met its real test on and under the seas.

AGREE ON PRICE, ALA. SHRIMP BOATS WORKING

Bayou La Batre, Ala.—Alabama's shrimp fleet went out for the first time in four days Tuesday following an agreement on prices. Resumption of operations came after several conferences between representatives of the Mobile Bay Seafood Union (AFL) and packing plants. Urban Bosarge, president of the union, said the shutdown in operations was about because of "the price situation."

"Small boats were operating in Mobile Bay and practically giving away shrimp," he said. "Such operations have been halted."

Under a price schedule announced by the packing houses will pay from $10 to $55 per barrel for shrimp, depending on size.

Going to religious services is fine but living a life that expresses religious conviction is better.

FLAME-THROWERS FAIL TO BURN DOPE CROPS

Denver—Army flame-throwers were used in an unsuccessful attempt to burn out a field of marijuana.

"All they've done is cure the stuff," a morals bureau detective remarked after watching the results of the flame-throwers.

Soldiers from the Rocky Mountain arsenal doused the marijuana weeds with oil and then turned on the flame. The weeds wilted momentarily then snapped back.

Capt. Verne McCoy of the morals bureau said that he was going to get a "bunch of trustees from the county jail and we're going out there with picks and shovels. We're going to turn up the whole lot and nothing is going to be left standing."

The patch of marijuana was found growing near some railroad yards.

CANNOT USE A-BOMB AGAINST HURRICANES

New Orleans—Now that we are in the middle of the hurricane season, comes the question, "Can't the atomic bomb be used to halt these mankillers?"

W. R. Stevens, chief forecaster in the US Weather Bureau here, says the answer is "no."

The question was raised by Crawford H. Ellis, New Orleans insurance executive, in a letter to the editor of the New Orleans Item. He pointed out that the cost of an A-bomb is less than the toll taken when hurricane "Charlie" killed 210 persons in a week-long rampage from Jamaica to southeastern Mexico.

"The danger is too great," Stevens said. "In the first place, the force of a big hurricane is probably greater than the force of an atomic bomb. Then, too, you can't just drop those things promiscuously—there's always the possibility there may be a ship below of which nothing is known and it might destroy the ship."

"In addition, there is the hazard of creating radio active rain, a rather unpleasant thing to contemplate."

"And, further, there is the possibility that instead of destroying the hurricane, an A-bomb might have the opposite effect and make it even more powerful."

"This," Stevens added, "could possibly happen if the A-bomb increased convection (the upward movement of air in the center of a hurricane)."

Stevens explained that while the winds of a hurricane in the Northern Hemisphere revolve counter-clockwise on a horizontal plane, there is a vertical clockwise movement of air, with wind moving upward near the center of the storm and downward on the outside.

HEN TURNS OUT TO BE ROOSTER
Pasadena, Calif.—Nine-year-old Clark Bailey's pet fowl is mated up now, but before too long it'll really be in a stew.
Clark was presented with a cute little chicken six months ago and he decided to name it Lucky. Lucky grew to be a beautiful Plymouth Rock hen and dutifully laid an egg.
But lately neighbors have complained that they hear crowing in the early hours. When police checked they found Lucky had sprouted spurs and other rooster characteristics.
The Bailey family says Lucky will be in a stew next Sunday.

AGREE ON PRICE, ALA. SHRIMP BOATS WORKING

Bayou La Batre, Ala.—Alabama's shrimp fleet went out for the first time in four days Tuesday following an agreement on prices. Resumption of operations came after several conferences between representatives of the Mobile Bay Seafood Union (AFL) and packing plants. When Borge, president of the union, said the shutdown in operations was about because of "the price situation."

Some small boats were operating in Mobile Bay and practically giving away their shrimp," he said. "Such operations have been halted."

Under a price schedule announced by the packing houses will pay from $1.50 to $55 per barrel for shrimp, depending on size.

Going to religious services is fine but living a life that expresses religious conviction is better.

FLAME-THROWERS FAIL TO BURN DOPE CROP

Denver—Army flame-throwers were used in an unsuccessful attempt to burn out a field of marijuana.

"All they've done is cure the stuff," a morals bureau detective remarked after watching the results of the flame-throwers.

Soldiers from the Rocky Mountain arsenal doused the Marijuana weeds with oil and then turned on the flame. The weeds wilted momentarily then snapped back.

Capt. Verne McCoy of the morals bureau said that he was going to get a "bunch of trustees from the county jail and we're going out there with picks and shovels. We're going to turn up the whole lot and nothing is going to be left standing."

The patch of marijuana was found growing near some railroad yards.

Mental phobias can become mass hysteria with resulting injury to innocent persons.

CANNOT USE A-BOMB AGAINST HURRICANES

New Orleans—Now that we are in the middle of the hurricane season, comes the question, "Can't the atomic bomb be used to halt these mankillers?"

W. R. Stevens, chief forecaster in the US Weather Bureau here, says the answer is "no".

The matter has been discussed in the weather bureau, Stevens said, "but not seriously."

The question was raised by Crawford H. Ellis, New Orleans insurance executive, in a letter to the editor of the New Orleans Item. He pointed out that the cost of an A-bomb is less than the toll taken when hurricane "Charlie" killed 210 persons in a week-long rampage from Jamaica to southeastern Mexico.

"The danger is too great," Stevens said. "In the first place, the force of a big hurricane is probably greater than the force of an atomic bomb. Then, too, you can't just drop those things promiscuously—there's always the possibility there may be a ship below of which nothing is known and it might destroy the ship."

"In addition, there is the hazard of creating radio active rain, a rather unpleasant thing to contemplate."

"And, further, there is the possibility that instead of destroying the hurricane, an A-bomb might have the opposite effect and make it even more powerful."

"This," Stevens added, "could possibly happen if the A-bomb increased convection (the upward movement of air in the center of a hurricane)."

Stevens explained that while the winds of a hurricane in the Northern Hemisphere revolve counter-clockwise on a horizontal plane, there is a vertical clockwise movement of air, with wind moving upward near the center of the storm and downward on the out-

"This air, he explained, picks up moist air near the surface of the ocean and carries it upward—possibly 20,000 feet—where it cools and the moisture condenses into rain and falls outside the center. Increased convection, Stevens said, frequently increases the intensity of a hurricane."

"We couldn't drop an A-bomb, anyhow," Stevens said, speaking of the weather bureau. "If such a bomb were dropped, it would have to be done by the military."

NEWS FROM BAY-WAYEAND YACHT CLUB

The Club had a small farewell party for Mr. Cliff Prados and his crew, consisting of Mrs. Prados and Tommy Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Farrelly last Friday night. The Prados were on their way to Toledo, Ohio, for the International Lightning races but it was indeed a farewell party, for Mr. Prados has been transferred to Shreveport, La., and will no longer make Bay St. Louis his home.

Tonight, August 30, the Club will have a shrimp boil in honor of the Lipton Team. Shippers are M. A. Thompson, Jr., J. E. Erwin, Louis Koerner and Jack Gordon. The Club will be very well represented at the Lipton races to be held at Panama City, Florida by the St. Andrews Bay Yacht Club, with the following acting as alternate shippers and crewmen: Leo Seal, Jr., C. C. McDonald, Jr., A. J. Wynne, David McDonald, John Koerner, Glen Coward, Elliot Coward and Larry Larroche and crews consisting of King Socola, Penny Cole, Shelby Tucker, Jr., Mrs. Ethel Thompson, June Breath, John Radford, Larry Schaff, Beverly Ann Glass, Harry Chapman, C. The Lightning fleet held a series of races, with H. A. Thompson, Jr., winning the series.

During the week end, the Club has scheduled a few races, including the much talked-about mother and daughter race which is scheduled for Monday afternoon, at 3:30. Those participating in this race are Karen Kergosien and her mother, Mrs. H. L. Kergosien, June Breath and Mrs. C. A. Breath, Jr., Barbara Holmes and Mrs. F. J. Trautour, Jr., and Margaret Boh and Mrs. Roger Boh. The alternates are Virginia Seal and Mrs. Leo Seal.

HEN TURNS OUT TO BE ROOSTER
Pasadena, Calif.—Nine-year-old Clark Bailey's pet fowl is mixed up now, but before too long it'll really be in a stew. Clark was presented with a cute little chicken six months ago and he decided to name it Lucky. Lucky grew to be a beautiful Plymouth Rock hen and dutifully laid an egg.

But lately neighbors have complained that they hear crowing in the early hours. When police checked they found Lucky had sprouted spurs and other rooster characteristics.

The Bailey family says Lucky will be in a stew next Sunday.

RUSIAN CAPTURED

Washington, Aug. 29.—A Russian MIG-15 jet fighter was shot down and recovered today in the possession of the Air Force.

An official report of the Air Force is being made on an interesting engineering feat by the Air Materiel Command at Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio.

The MIG-15 was shot down off the West Coast and was landed in shallow water.

Air Force spokesmen declined to comment but it was reported they are considering restoring the plane to flight condition and testing it against US fighters.

BAD STRETCH

Hagerstown, Md.—Six-year-old Raymond Kilos stretched as he sat watching television.

He put his foot on the floor again, and winced.

His leg was broken.

It was the youngster's 34th fracture. He has a rare bone disease that causes him to break bones turning over in bed, walking or just raising his hand.

Ray's back at Washington county hospital, where he has become a familiar patient.

Hint to Adults: Kind words to children pay dividends for many years.

SEAFOOD INDUSTRY VALUE IS REPORTED

The US Fish and Game service reports that Louisiana and Mississippi canned more than $12,000,000 worth of crabs and shrimp for animal consumption in 1950. Mississippi, with 19 plants, packed 202,066 cases of shrimp worth $3,412,345. Three plants packed 7,128 cases of blue crabs worth $137,741.

NEW PRODUCTION IN PINE RIDGE FIELD IS SEEN

Extension of the Pine Ridge oil field in Adams County, said for months to have been fully exploited, is believed in the offering. The Barnett Sero Drilling Company of Natchez reports that it has cored 17 feet of good oil sand in the Fielding McGee No. 1 well on the edge of the Pine Ridge field. The oil sand was found at from 5,613 to 5,630 feet. Production casing has been run and a test is expected soon.

ELECTRIC ENERGY OUTPUT UP

Total sales of electric energy in Mississippi in April 1951 increased to 142,391 million kilowatt-hours, an increase of 10.8 percent compared with March sales of 128,436 million kilowatt-hours, according to the current issue of the Mississippi Business Review. Compared with sales for April 1950, a 16.0 percent increase was registered. At the close of April 1951 the index stood at 376 percent of the 1939-1940 average compared with 399 percent at the end of March.

WINSTON 4-H BOYS MOVE EARTH FOR FAIRGROUNDS

It's a lot of dirt—but two hills will be moved when an all-out effort is made by nine major companies and the Winston County Board of Supervisors to cut, fill and level 15 acres of the 4-H club fair grounds. The new 4-H Club exhibit hall at the Winston County, Mississippi, fairgrounds is an example of what hard-working club members and civic minded citizens can accomplish. The boys aren't exclusive with their fair. Every community is invited to exhibit at the fair, and prizes are given.

CAA PLANS SUGGEST 123 NEW, IMPROVED AIRPORTS IN STATE

Plans of the Civil Aeronautics Administration call for 123 new or improved airports in Mississippi. The plans, which do not necessarily assure Federal aid, are part of an overall program of the CAA to provide a system of adequate airports to meet civilian needs. The CAA estimates the overall cost at $661,975,000, with the Federal government to provide $323,738,000 and the local sponsors the remainder.

GLOVE COMPANY CHAIRMAN IN PRAISE OF MISSISSIPPI

W. O. Wells, Sr., chairman of the board of directors for the Wells LeMont Glove Corporation which operates three plants in the state, was high in his praise of the employees in his Mississippi operations. The board chairman said "this is the first time in 44 years that our salesmen have held their convention outside of the City of Chicago, and all of us are more than delighted with Mississippi." Mr. Wells stated "Our men cover the whole US and they are going back to these places and tell a fine story about Mississippi." Only one glove factory in the United States now employs more people than the Eupora factory," Wells said.

MEDICAL PROGRAM PRAISED IN ARTICLE IN READERS DIGEST

The June issue of the Readers Digest contains an article by Paul de Kruif praising the state's program providing medical students with scholarships on the condition that they return to Mississippi and practice for five years in rural areas. The article states: "In getting itself desperately needed new doctors, Mississippi, is putting all the rest of us to shame."

Equality is something for other people to share.
